Columbus Lodge 2143
S. Farmingdale NY

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1:

This lodge, under the Charter granted by the Supreme Council, shall hereinafter be known as COLUMBUS LODGE NO. 2143, ORDER SONS OF ITALY IN AMERICA.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1:

- a) All applications for membership into this Lodge shall be accompanied by the initiation fee (whatsoever it may be, as promulgated by the Assembly at the time) plus a full year's dues (may be prorated as to time of year).
- b) The Lodge's yearly dues shall be paid in one annual payment by January 1st of the incoming year and will be adjusted each year for increases to the "per capita tax" that is assessed to the Lodge. Members in good standing for 15 consecutive years in Columbus Lodge, and age 65, shall be entitled to a $15 reduction from the regular dues. Members in good standing for 15 consecutive years in Columbus Lodge and age 75 shall pay no more than the then current "per capita tax" assessed to the Lodge. In all cases these amounts shall be rounded off to the nearest dollar.
- c) Said applications for membership, when received and found to be in order, must be read at a regular session of the Lodge and thereafter the membership committee shall proceed with its tasks of screening and investigating said candidates, placing a special emphasis in carefully examining the character of the applicant and, upon completion of said investigation, to report back to the Assembly with its recommendations. The application for membership is then read again to the Assembly after which said Lodge is ready to proceed to vote on same.
- d) After an applicant is favorably voted upon and the candidate fails to appear for initiation on two consecutive occasions, said applicant shall forfeit his fee and dues to the Lodge, unless said applicant has given proper notice to the President prior to the initiation and is excused by the President.
- e) The Supreme/Grand Lodge General Laws & Judicial Code and the State By- Laws book will be made available to any member at a general meeting upon request for said member's inspection between meetings. The member will sign for the book and return by the next General Meeting. All members have the right to purchase this book at their own expense (Last updated: 3-27-13).
- f) Admission to Social Membership will be limited to one member per calendar year (January to December). The total number of Social Members shall not exceed ten (10) members at any time. The selection of a Social Member shall be made from all applications submitted during the calendar year. The selected Social Member will be initiated at the last Initiation Ceremony scheduled for that calendar year.

Section 2:

- a) An attendance ledger shall be used to keep accurate attendance records of all meetings.
- b) All members Brothers are required to sign in prior to a meeting. Brother's full name and
- c) Lodge Membership Number must appear. A member shall not sign the attendance ledger for another member (Last updated 3-27-2013).
- d) The Attendance Ledger is officially closed at completion of committee reports.

- e) The Sentinel will at the time for closing of the Ledger have the President or presiding officer sign the Ledger on the next line after the last Brothers name. The President's signature will include the date and the total number of Brothers in attendance.
- f) The Recording Secretary will include the attendance figure as part of those meetings minutes.
- g) The Ledger is to be kept in the office safe and shall be given to the Sentinel(s) twenty minutes before a meeting.
- h) Any member wishing to view the Ledger must first notify the President and must view the Ledger in the Lodge office in the company of an Officer as assigned by the president.
- i) If a Brother Member is asked by the President to represent the Lodge at an event instead of attending a meeting, the President and/or Presiding Officer shall enter the member's number into the Ledger and will be excused due to being on lodge business.

ARTICLE III: LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Section 1:

- a) By secret ballot of no less than two thirds affirmative vote of those present at any regular Lodge session, and only after written notice through an official lodge notification for all members, may then elect a member in good standing to honorary life member for extraordinary and distinguished service rendered this Lodge.
- b) This extraordinary and distinguished services rendered to the Lodge by said nominee shall be presented to the Assembly at one of its regular sessions in the form of a written resolution and in compliance with the house rules of this Lodge, and through an official Lodge notification for all members, specifically mentioning the date upon which said resolution will be acted upon, thereby giving every member in good standing an opportunity to be heard on the subject, and thereafter if said resolution is approve, its provisions shall be strictly complied with.
- c) It is the intent of this Lodge that rendering services as an officer or executive member of the Council of this Lodge, or chairman or any of the Lodge distinguished services, as herein above mentioned, with the exception that all current Past Presidents and Presidents leaving office will automatically have conferred on them the title of Life Member with all benefits and honors so derived.

- a) Voting in general elections shall be by written or printed ballot or voting machines if necessary, for all officers enumerated in Article V of these laws and said elections shall be held during the month of February. However, should said candidates are unopposed then, of course, there would be no need for a written ballot and or voting machines if necessary. In the further event that only one office is being contested, then the printed ballot shall be used; the Assembly, of course, may for the sake of expedience, adopt any other method in said case where only one office is being contested, as it may see fit under the circumstances.

Section 2:

- a) Notice of said general election must be given to the entire membership in writing or through official communications at least five days prior to said election.

Section 3:

- a) The Election shall be conducted and supervised by the Electoral Board which shall consist of a Chairman and at least four members, who must be members for at least one year and in good standing. The President and or presiding officer of the assembly shall appoint this committee, at least one month prior to the election. In addition to the a-fore-stated, the Electoral Board shall be responsible to perform the following duties:
 - i.) Distribute ballots if used only to duly qualified members present.
 - ii.) Count the votes, excluding those ballots that are unmarked and segregate those that in the opinion of the Board may be void or contestable.
 - iii.) Detect and declare void ballots, which bear special marks.
 - iv.) Declare void ballots that reveal the voter's identity.
 - v.) Count the votes cast for each candidate.
 - vi.) Announce the results of the Election(s).
 - vii.) Keep all ballots or printed results from a voting machine in a sealed envelope for thirty days after said election(s) and then destroy said ballots or printed results.

Section 4: Elections Procedures:

a) Electioneering:

- i.) The Placement of Flyers, posters and alike are forbidden to be placed in or on the building.
- ii.) The distribution of handouts is permitted, provided that it takes place at least 20 feet from the stairs leading to the building. The candidate is responsible for any litter that may occur.
- iii.) Candidates seeking a contested Chair position (President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, and Orator) will be allowed a quarter page article (equal space) in the Election Issue of the Navigator or official lodge written correspondence. Articles are to contain material solely to promote their candidacy to the Chair position sought. All Articles must be submitted to the Chairman of the Electoral Board for review as per guidelines of the Article VII: Section 5.
- iv.) At the first general meeting of the month of February, ONLY candidates running for a chair position will be allotted three (3) minutes to address the membership.

b) Ballot:

ARTICLE XI: CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Section 1: Conflict of Interest:

- a) The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the Columbus Lodge's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of any officers of the Columbus Lodge or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2: Interested Person:

- a) Any Elective Officer, as defined in Article V of the Columbus Lodge House Rules, who has directly or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

Section 3: Financial Interest:

- a) A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family:
 - i.) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,
 - ii.) A compensation arrangement with the organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - iii.) A potential ownership or investment in or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
- b) Compensation includes direct or indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.
- c) A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under section 12 (4) a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate Columbus Lodge elective officers decides that a conflict of interest exists must disclose the existence of the financial interest.

Section 4: Duty to Disclose:

- a) In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Columbus Lodge elective officers the proposed transaction or arrangement.

Section 5: Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists:

- a) After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he shall leave the Columbus Lodge elective officers while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining elective officers shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Section 6: Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest:

Policy as voted upon on Feb 1, 2007:

- a) An interested person (who is not an officer) may make a presentation at the officers' meeting, but after the presentation, he shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- b) After exercising due diligence, the elected officers shall determine whether the lodge can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- c) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the officers shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested officers whether the transaction or arrangement is in the organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter the transaction or arrangement.

Section 7: Violation of the Conflict of Interest Policy:

- a) If the officers have reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain alleged failure to disclose.
- b) If after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the officers determine the member has failed to disclose an actual conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Section 8: Recording of Proceedings:

- a) The minutes of the officers' meeting shall contain the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the officers' decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. Also, the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any vote taken in connection with the proceedings.

ARTICLE XII: BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Section 1: General Procedures:

This section was approved by the membership effective 3-27-2013:

- a) All work to be done on the building or any Columbus Lodge Property must include plans and an exact scope of work. Plans must be submitted to the officers and membership for approval for being submitted for bids.
- b) Bidding will also be announced at meetings inviting members to seek bids. Bids will be sealed and sent to the attention of the committees and addressed to Columbus Lodge ONLY. Upon receipt, the bids will be put into the safe and opened at the appropriate time by the committee, the Chair officers, Principal Trustee, and one other trustee. Bids accepted by the committee must then be submitted to the officers and members for approval.

As approved on 9/25/19: This article will be repealed from the fraternal lodge (Columbus Lodge #2143) House Rules upon the notification of the entire membership, a vote by the membership, and approval of "House Lodge By-Laws" containing similar language.

All pages have been revised by Committee & Chairman recommendation, Officer recommendation & Membership vote on December 30th, 2020
All previous versions of Columbus Lodge House Rules prior to the above date considered void and not in force, whether a conflict arises or not.
